

PAUL BANNING RI R SMA
CHRISTMAS OPEN STUDIO

Saturday 23rd and Sunday 24th November 2019 10.30 – 4.00 pm
Woodlands Corner, Redlands Lane, Ewshot, Farnham, Surrey GU10 5AS

PAUL BANNING is a British painter of landscapes, marine and city life. He loves to paint en plein air and is motivated by the subtle early morning light as dawn breaks. Paul has travelled, painted and exhibited his work widely. Paul's work has been hung in the Royal Academy and he was awarded the coveted Turner Watercolour Award Medal for an outstanding group of paintings in 2011.

Hundreds of paintings, oils and watercolours of all sizes, framed and unframed will be on sale at non-gallery prices. People and places in London, France, Italy, Trinidad, India and beyond.

Enjoy browsing and discover a painting you'll love for you or your loved ones. Come and join Paul at Woodlands Corner for a glass of wine and some stress-free Christmas shopping.

This Christmas sale of gallery-hung work is by invitation only to painting colleagues, friends and family.

RSVP

jeremy.banning@blueyonder.co.uk
or 07919 073842

Parking is limited, so please RSVP to help us to manage the flow of people and cars on a small lane.

True to the spirit of Margaret, who would have been delighted that Paul is tidying up his painting studios, Paul will be making a donation from the sales to Dementia UK in Margaret's memory.

