

Wokingham Sketching Workshop with Ian Fennelly

18–19 July, 2020 - 10am – 4pm each day

In his fun and whimsical style, Ian will teach two workshops, each focusing on a different urban sketching subject ... Day 1- Layers of Looking (the more you look, the more you see) and Day 2- Sketching Stories (story telling through detail). He will do a series of demos, exploring different techniques, such as watercolour washes, use of brush pens and fine liners. The workshops are for sketchers at all stages of their sketching journey who want to be challenged and have fun in a friendly group environment.

To book a place, please email mohanb.banerji@gmail.com Fees must be paid within one week of receipt of email confirming workshop place. As places are limited (maximum 15 people each day), please register as soon as possible. Emails confirming workshop places will be sent on a first come, first served basis. Please bring your own lunch as this will not be provided. Material lists will be emailed closer to the workshop.

Cost : £40 per day, per person

Preferred method of payment is by Bank transfer (my address and bank details will be included in the email confirming the workshop place). Cheques can be mailed to : M. Banerji, 3 Tanglewood, Finchampstead, Wokingham, RG40 3PR

Ian is an urban sketcher, an artist and a primary art consultant from the north-west of England. Ian studied painting at Wimbledon School of Art and gained a 1st Class Honours degree. His artwork sells worldwide. See more of his colourful mixed media and watercolour artwork on Instagram at @ianfennelly

